XXIX Internationale Vereinigung für Rechts- und Sozialphilosophie (IVR) World Congress (2019), Lucerne (Switzerland)

SW: Fairness of Algorithms and Disruptive Legal Innovation in Complex Litigation

CONVENORS: Arthur Brasil, Juliana Castello, Samuel Brasil

Ana Carolina Boldrini, Artificial Intelligence in the Decision-Making Process: Risks to the Data Protection in the Fundamental Rights Perspective.

Angela Baptista Balliana Kock, Disruptive Innovations at Work.

Arthur Ferreira Brasil, Decision Grounding: Algorithms Regulation and Due Process.

Caio Henrique de Assis Moreira; Jairo Sarmanho Müller, The Logic Applied by Artificial Intelligences into Legal Argumentation and how it compares to the Logic of Human Judges.

Juliana Justo B. Castello, Complex Litigation: The Use of Artificial Intelligence to Set Weak and Strong Scenarios for Aggregate Treatment of Individual Damages.

Matheus Ferreira Destefani, The Role of the Collective Process in Highly Complex Litigation and the Search for the Effectiveness of Homogeneous Individual Rights.

Monique Libardi, The Directive (EU) 2016/680 to Prevail and Prevent Serious Crimes for Third Countries.

Nathalia Linard Paes Landim Rocha, The Role of Regulating Information Sharing in the Algorithmic Society.

Samuel M.Brasil Jr., On Fairness of Algorithmic Decision-Making in Complex Litigation.

Tainá Aguiar Junquilho, Applying XAI to Law: How to Control the Machine Judgment?